Rajpura rail track blast accused deported from US, arrested by NIA

The GRP received information about the explosion and found a damaged railway sleeper and dismembered body near the site. FILE

NEW DELHI/CHANDIGARH: A supporter of the banned outfit Khalistan Zindabad Force (KZF), Surinder Singh alias Thikriwal, wanted for his alleged connection with the April 27 blast on a railway line in Punjab's Rajpura, has been deported from the United States and was taken into custody by the National Investigation Agency (NIA), the agency said on Wednesday.

Singh, the anti-terror agency said, was detained by the US authorities.

The blast occurred around 10 pm on April 27 near Bathonia village. The Government Railway Police (GRP) received information about the explosion and found a damaged railway sleeper and the dismembered body of a man near the site, who was later identified as ground operative Jagroop Singh.

"Singh was arrested in the case related to the blast on the railway line of the Dedicated Freight Corridor Corporation of India Ltd (DFCCIL) at KM No. 1174-5, between Shambhu and Rajpura stations, on April 27, 2026. The blast was carried out to further the terror activities of the KZF, disrupt communal harmony and destabilise law and order in Punjab," a NIA spokesperson said in a statement.

NIA said that during its probe, "it surfaced that after the blast at Rajpur-Shambu railway track, Singh posted a video on his Facebook account glorifying and supporting the incident".

"In the video, he also extended support to the accused persons behind the criminal conspiracy including deceased Jagroop Singh, who died while carrying out the blast. He described Khalistan Zindabad Force, a banned terrorist organization as 'Qaumi Organisation' and called Ranjeet Singh alias Neeta, a designated individual terrorist as 'the general of the Qaum'," the agency added.

The NIA had issued a lookout circular against the accused during the probe. Multiple criminal cases are registered against him in different districts of Punjab, the agency said. With this arrest, the NIA has so far arrested eight accused in the Rajpura-Shambhu blast case. So far the agency has arrested or detained eight accused in the case.

NIA SAID SURINDER SINGH POSTED A VIDEO ON FACEBOOK GLORIFYING AND SUPPORTING THE BLAST IN PUNJAB ON APRIL 27

5 BOOKED FOR ASSAULTING MAN IN SANGRUR

SANGRUR: Police have booked five people, including three residents of Lehal Kalan village in Lehragaga subdivision, Sangrur, following an attack on a man on Monday. The victim, Satguru Singh, who is currently undergoing treatment at a hospital in Sunam, claimed that he along with a few locals had formed a village anti-drug committee three years ago. He said while he was returning from his farm on Monday, a group of men assaulted him with sharp-edged weapons and an iron rod.

Village sarpanch Gurjit Singh alleged that a few youths from the village, who were addicted to drugs, attacked him.

Lehragaga deputy superintendent of police (DSP) Palwinder Singh Cheema said the incident took place on Monday, and an FIR was registered on Wednesday following the victim's statement. He said while the victim did not state that the attack happened because he opposed drugs, the police will investigate that angle. HTC

Law student held for siphoning ₹30L from grandfather's account

NEW DELHI: A 22-year-old law student siphoned off nearly ₹30 lakh from his 87-year-old grandfather's bank account over seven months and allegedly used the money to go on lavish trips to Manali, Nainital and Odisha, throw parties and buy a car, police said on Wednesday. The student and one of his friends have been arrested.

The two accused — Abhishek Raghav and Tushar Chaudhary, both 22 — allegedly stole ₹29.5 lakh through multiple transactions between April and October. The victim, Jagdish Singh, is a retired Navy official, police said. The case came to light after Singh's son, Ashwani Raghav, obtained his father's bank statement in October and found that only around ₹6.25 lakh remained in the account, deputy commissioner of police (east) Rajeev Kumar said. "The complainant alleged that during the period from April to October, fraudulent transactions had been made from the bank account of his father. The total deducted amount was ₹29,50,892," the DCP said.

On the basis of a complaint filed by Ashwani, a case of cheating by personation was registered under sections 318 and 319 of the BNS, and a probe was initiated. The police team obtained bank records, documents and transaction details to trace the money and identify those involved. "Probe revealed ₹9,26,892 had been transferred to a bank account in the name of the victim's grandson Abhishek, while ₹20,24,000 had been transferred to another bank account belonging to Tushar. Both were interrogated and subsequently arrested. Abhishek's phone number was linked to his grandfather's bank account, which he allegedly misused to carry out the cheating in connivance with Tushar," DCP said. HTC

Another owner of collapsed Delhi building arrested

Karn Pratap Singh

According to the FIR, tenants of the building that collapsed in Jwala Nagar in Shahdara on Tuesday repeatedly asked the owners to repair the building. RAJ K RAJ /HT PHOTO

NEW DELHI: Police on Wednesday arrested a 46-year-old man – one of the owners of the building that collapsed in Delhi's Jwala Nagar near Shahdara on Tuesday, killing a three-year-old boy and a 35-year-old man, officials said.

The accused, identified as Beer Singh, is the brother of 53-year-old Surender Singh, the other owner, who was arrested on Tuesday. Beer had been on the run since the two-storey building, about 30 metres from the railway tracks between Vivek Vihar and Shahdara stations, collapsed around 10am on Tuesday.

The two were booked under BNS sections 125 (act endangering life), 106 (death by negligence), and 223 (disobedience to order duly promulgated by public servant) at Vivek Vihar police station.

According to the FIR, tenants repeatedly asked the owners to repair the building. "However, despite being informed, the co-owners did not get the roof or walls repaired, which eventually led to the building collapse," the FIR stated. The police inquiry also revealed the owners had not carried out police verification of tenants, and that one tenant was running a sweets manufacturing unit on the ground floor. "Since the tenants had been residing in the building without police verification, Section 223 of the BNS was added," an officer said.

Seven people were trapped when the building fell; all were rescued and rushed to Hedgewar Hospital. The deceased were identified as Pintu Singh, 35, and a three-year-old boy, Devansh. The injured included Devansh's mother Khushbu, 27, Singh's physically challenged brother Vikesh Singh, 30, and Akash Singh, 25, Aman, 18, and Dalip Kumar, 22. Except for Dalip, who was shifted to Rajiv Gandhi Super Speciality Hospital, all were discharged on Wednesday.
