Rudrapur tops state in electorate after SIR

Replaces Dharampur In Doon As Seat With Max Voters

Kautilya.Singh
@timesofindia.com

Dehradun: Rudrapur has emerged as Uttarakhand's largest assembly constituency in terms of electorate, replacing Dharampur, which has slipped to fourth place, in the latest draft electoral roll released during the ongoing Special Summary Revision (SSR).

Rudrapur has 1.74 lakh voters, followed by Kaladhungi with 1.71 lakh and Sahaspur with 1.64 lakh. Dharampur, which had topped the list in the past few elections, has 1.59 lakh voters. The draft roll, issued this week, showed that constituencies with the largest electorates are concentrated mainly in Udham Singh Nagar, Dehradun and Haridwar districts.

All nine assembly constituencies in US Nagar have more than one lakh voters.

SIR conducted last month showed decline in number of women voters was higher than that of men in 36 of 70 assembly constituencies

In Haridwar, nine of the 11 constituencies have electorates exceeding one lakh, while in Dehradun, eight of the 10 constituencies have more than one lakh voters, with Rajpur Road and Dehradun below the mark. The final figures will be known after the Election Commission publishes the final electoral roll on Jan 4, 2027.

At the other end of the scale, Tehri has the lowest electorate among the state's assembly constituencies, with 67,885 voters, followed by Lansdowne with 68,902. Didihat, Ranikhet, Almora, Purola, Yamunotri, Gangotri, Devprayag, Pratapnagar and Chaubattakhal are among the other constituencies with fewer than 80,000 voters. All three constituencies in Uttarkashi district — Purola, Yamunotri and Gangotri — have fewer than 80,000 voters.

Social activist Anoop Nautiyal said the electoral roll published after the Special Intensive Revision (SIR), conducted last month, showed that the proportionate decline in the number of women voters was higher than that of men in 36 of the state's 70 assembly constituencies. "The findings call for closer examination rather than assumptions about the reasons. More details will emerge when the final roll is released in Jan," he said.

Additional chief electoral officer Vijay Kumar Jogdande on Friday said that people who turn 18 on Jan 1, 2027, as well as those whose names were omitted from the electoral roll for any reason, could apply for inclusion by submitting Form 6 to their booth-level officer (BLO) by Dec 11 and that claims and objections can be filed until Dec 28.

"Those whose names were left out during the SIR exercise will also have an opportunity to apply during the ongoing SSR process," Jogdande said.

Right-wing group protests member's arrest in Doon

Dehradun: Bajrang Dal members on Saturday protested at Dehradun SSP office over the arrest of one of their members in connection with a Rs 14 lakh dacoity in Patel Nagar on Nov 7. Police have arrested six people in the case and recovered Rs 3 lakh.

The right-wing protesters alleged that police had falsely implicated their member, Siddhant Badoni, and demanded an impartial investigation. Led by outfit's state convener Vikas Verma, they staged a demonstration for over an hour and sought a meeting with SSP Pramendra Dobal.

ROBBERY CASE

"We believe our member Siddhant Badoni has been falsely implicated by the investigating officer. We want an impartial probe and strict action against any officer found responsible," Verma said.

Following the protest, Dobal transferred the investigation from Dehradun city circle to Dehradun rural circle. "Bajrang Dal members raised some concerns about the investigation. We have included those concerns in the probe and assigned SP (rural) Jaya Baluni to investigate the case," Dobal said.

Baluni will also examine the conduct of Patel Nagar police officers to determine whether they had any malafide intention before the arrests were made, he said. TNN

Murder accused's property razed soon after arrest

TIMES NEWS NETWORK

Rudrapur: A day after a 35-year-old shopkeeper was stabbed to death inside Rudrapur district hospital following a business rivalry, the administration on Saturday demolished portions of the prime accused's house and shop in Jagatpura, citing encroachment. The action took place in the presence of BJP MLA Shiv Arora and senior officials as the victim's family and local residents protested, refusing to allow his cremation until all those involved in the murder were arrested.

Nitesh Kumar was killed after two groups involved in the mobile accessories business clashed in Jagatpura on Friday morning, leaving four people injured. The dispute continued at the district hospital, where the injured had gone for treatment. "Vikas Kumar stabbed Nitesh after an altercation and fled towards Bareilly, planning to escape to Nepal," SP (city) Pramod Kumar said.

Police arrested Vikas following an encounter at Izzatnagar railway station in Bareilly late Friday. They alleged that he snatched a constable's pistol, opened fire at the police team and tried to escape. He sustained a bullet injury in his leg in retaliatory firing. Police also arrested his father, Vinod Kumar, and brother, Akash Kumar, for allegedly helping him evade arrest.

Arora, Rudrapur sub-divisional magistrate (SDM) Manish Bisht and SP (city) Pramod Kumar met the protesters and assured them of action against the remaining suspects. The MLA said he had spoken to CM Pushkar Singh Dhami, who assured full govt support to the family.

"Not a single person involved will be spared. Every accused will be brought within the ambit of law and sent behind bars. There is no place for criminals in Devbhoomi Uttarakhand," Arora said. Bisht said the administration had demolished only those portions of house and shop that encroached on land, following due procedure. Police continued raids to arrest the remaining suspects.
