Naushin's 'Starry Night' and Juneina Ahmed's 'Mask' Unveiled in Guwahati

The Assam Rising, Guwahati, November 20 : Two literary works, Naushin's English poetry collection 'Starry Night' and Juneina Ahmed's book 'Mask', were formally unveiled at a programme held at the PWD Convention Hall in Guwahati on November 18.

The book-launch ceremony was attended by several distinguished personalities, including noted translator and Sahitya Akademi Award winner Bipul Deuri, eminent litterateur Dr Manorama Sharma, Mayur Bora, Dr Ayesha Ashraf Ahmed and Jyotsna Devi Bhagawati, among others.

The distinguished guests welcomed the publication of the two books and appreciated the literary efforts of the authors. They expressed hope that such creative initiatives would play an important role in encouraging literary pursuits and nurturing creative thinking among the younger generation.

'Starry Night' is an English poetry collection authored by Naushin, while 'Mask' is a literary work by Juneina Ahmed. The publication of the two books has generated enthusiasm among literary enthusiasts in Guwahati.

The gathering also extended its best wishes to the two emerging authors, Naushin and Juneina Ahmed, wishing them success in their literary journeys and future creative endeavours.

National press day celebrated at Nagaon Press Club
Only correct news Can transform democratic practice: Dr Indrajit Bezbaruah

The Assam Rising, Nagaon, November 20 : National press day was celebrated today at the Dr Abu Hanifa auditorium of Nagaon Press Club, organized by the Nagaon district administration and District Information and Public Relations Office in association with Nagaon Press Club. The programme was presided over by Jiten Borkatoki, President of Nagaon Press Club.Participating as the keynote speaker, Dr Indrajit Bezbaruah, Principal of Samaguri College, delivered a lecture on this year's National Press Day theme — "Journalism: Popular or Responsible."Speaking on the lifestyle and challenges of journalists, Dr Bezbaruah said that although many people with a passion for literature and culture show interest in journalism, it is not an easy task to survive in journalism for a long time.Quoting a data, he mentioned that at present there are about 42,000 rural journalists in Assam, and said that the life and livelihood of these rural journalists are not secure.He further said that even though some people criticise journalists in some cases, journalists of different ages who practice journalism with dedication have been nurturing the language and taking the language to the people.Terming it as a matter of concern that many people instantly send news through social media with mobile phones in hand, Principal Dr Bezbaruah said that practice is still going on in the democratic society in which we live. "Only correct news can transform this democratic practice. Only a responsible journalist can provide correct news," he said.Stating that journalists should not give scope to others to criticise them, the speaker said that journalists should keep analysing themselves. He called upon journalists to practice journalism with responsibility. He also observed that the number of journalists doing journalism with national commitment is decreasing.In the meeting, Sailen Saikia, advisor of Nagaon Press Club and senior journalist, mentioning the challenges that have come to the field of journalism in recent times, said that due to various factors, it has become difficult for journalists to practice journalism with independent thinking.The meeting, anchored by Nilutpal Bora, General Secretary of Nagaon Press Club, who also explained the objective, was addressed by Dr Priyanka Kashyap, in-charge District Information and Public Relations Officer, Nagaon. She extended National Press Day greetings to journalists from different parts of Nagaon district and thanked them for the cooperation they have been extending at various times.Kanak Hazarika, Advisor of Nagaon Press Club and senior journalist, also participated in the meeting. Government-recognised print and electronic media journalists of the district, along with office bearers and journalists of press clubs from Nagaon Sadar, Samaguri, Puranigudam, Kampur, Juria, Batadroba, Dhing, Barhampur, Bebejia and other places, participated in the National Press Day programme.On behalf of the Nagaon district administration and the District Information and Public Relations Office, journalists were felicitated with gamocha, pen and other items.

Retired teacher Prabha Khanikar passes away in Tezpur

The Assam Rising, Tezpur, November 20: Prabha Khanikar (84), a retired teacher and resident of Majgaon, Jyoti Nagar, died at her residence here on Thursday following age-related ailments. Her last rites were performed at about 11 a.m. at the public crematorium at Parowa.She began her career as a teacher at Gamiripal L.P. School in Jamugurihat before her marriage. After marriage, she served for a long period at Pithakhuwa Primary School near Tezpur and retired from Sonitpur Primary School in Tezpur town. Remembered as a teacher who won the affection of students and guardians alike, Khanikar was a prominent member of the Tezpur branch of the Eksharana Bhagawati Samaj. She was also a skilled namati (Naam singer) and extended active cooperation to local social and cultural programmes, laying stress on educational and cultural development and a healthy social environment.She had been unwell for some time and had earlier undergone hip surgery. As her condition deteriorated a few days ago, she was admitted to a nursing home in Tezpur. On the advice of doctors, she was brought home on Wednesday, and she breathed her last on Thursday while undergoing treatment. Admirers thronged her residence at Majgaon to pay their last respects after news of her death spread. Tezpur MLA Prithiraj Rabha, Borchola MLA Ritubaran Sharma, the Sonitpur Press Club, Sonitpur Journalist Union, JAFA, Tezpur Eksharana Bhagawati Samaj, Tezpur Mahila Samiti and Natarajam Kala Mandir were among those who expressed grief over her demise.She is survived by three sons, including journalist Prashanta Khanikar, their wives, two daughters, two grandchildren and a large number of relatives and admirers.
