Raids as part of probe into suspected gold smuggling, hawala transactions, and foreign exchange violations

The Enforcement Directorate (ED) conducted searches across multiple locations in Keralam on Friday as part of its investigation into suspected gold smuggling, hawala transactions, and foreign exchange violations.

The searches were conducted mostly in Kannur, Kasaragod, Kozhikode, Malappuram and Palakkad districts. Officials of the central agency began the searches around 5 a.m.

The residences and offices of persons suspected of being involved in hawala transactions, gold smuggling and foreign exchange violations were covered in the simultaneous searches at various locations.

ED officials were accompanied by personnel of the Central Industrial Security Force (CISF) as they entered residences across multiple districts.

The searches were conducted at the residences of persons with business interests both in the State and abroad, including those involved in the gold jewellery business. The houses of people close to them were also covered as part of the investigation into suspected hawala transactions and gold smuggling. The ED's probe primarily focused on alleged foreign exchange violations under the Foreign Exchange Management Act (FEMA) and illegal financial transactions.

Officials are also probing alleged transactions routed through suspected hawala networks outside the formal banking system. They are also looking into persons suspected of being involved in gold smuggling cases.

High Court asks State govt. to submit final report to Kollam Vigilance court in SNDP microfinance case

The Hindu Bureau
KOCHI

The Kerala High Court has directed the State government to submit the final report on the Sree Narayana Dharma Paripalana (SNDP) Yogam microfinance cheating case to the Vigilance Special court in Kollam where the trial is on.

This came after the government submitted that the documents pertaining to the case had been submitted before different vigilance courts in the State.

Seeks two more weeks

In this situation, the government sought two more weeks to submit the final report.

Subsequently, a Bench of Justice A. Badharudeen directed the courts concerned and the investigating officer to submit the FIR, the pertinent documents and the final report before the Kollam Vigilance court by November 26. The officer would have to appear in person before the court if he failed to comply with the direction to submit the final report (which the probe officer said is ready for submission) before the special court, the Bench said, and directed the High Court registry to communicate the order to the courts concerned.

For marginalised

The microfinance scheme was intended for the upliftment of marginalised people from backward communities. The Yogam was one of the NGOs selected to implement the scheme.

The High Court had earlier this month said that the sanction from the Backward Classes Development department was not required to prosecute the general secretary of the SNDP Yogam Vellapally Natesan, and the other accused in the case. This interim order followed a petition filed by a person from Alappuzha, seeking to constitute a Special Investigation Team (SIT) to probe the alleged misappropriation in loans amounting to ₹15.85 crore that had been disbursed to the Yogam under a microfinance scheme of the Kerala State Backward Classes Development Corporation.
